NAME YOUR FAVORITE !!

Aleksandr and the St. Bartholomew Choir are taking requests! During Ordinary Time (May 29 to November 13) we invite you to submit your requests for favorite hymns or anthems, that you would like to hear or sing during the 10:30 Sunday service. If you are vacationing, or otherwise unavailable, please note that with your request, so that we don't sing your favorite when you are not here! The choir will be on break for a few weeks, however Dorothea will schedule your requests as you wish. There are slips on the library table for your convenience; please return them to Dorothea's box outside the church office, or email your requests to dkingsbury@kingsburylaw.com.

Just a couple worship notes:

Even if you are not inclined to sing, please follow the lyrics for the hymns. They are statements of scripture and faith set to music.

If you are interested in joining the choir, please contact Dorothea Kingsbury: (216-978-1312 or dkingsbury@kingsburylaw.com). Even if you can't come every Sunday and are available only occasionally or for special services, we welcome you. We rehearse from 9:15 a.m. until about 10:00 a.m. every Sunday (except from June 5 until August 21 while we are on break). We have plenty of hymnals and robes, and sit in the best seats in the house!

All welcome - No try-outs - No pay - But we have a good time!

THE THIRD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

05 June 2016

Welcome! Please enter the nave quietly and reverently as there may be people already in prayer and contemplation.

Thank you for worshiping with us today. Your presence is important to all of us. If you are just passing through, we wish you Godspeed on your travels and hope that you will join us whenever you return. If you live in this area and are new to this parish, we welcome you and invite you to make Saint Bartholomew your church home. If you are a long-time member who has been gone for a while, welcome home---we've missed you! And if you are a member of this parish who generally shows up every week, thank you for your commitment to our parish family---well done, good and faithful servant!

About Today's Lessons

In our Sunday Eucharists, we will be reading through the gospel according to Luke for the next several months. Today's gospel reading is the account of Jesus restoring life to the son of a widow in the city of Nain. Last Sunday we heard about Jesus healing the servant of a Gentile. In both stories, Luke sees the event as a proclamation of the nature of God's Kingdom: it is open to all people and it gives new life.

The Old Testament reading is a parallel story from the ministry of the greatest of the Old Testament prophets, Elijah. When Jesus raises the dead man to life again, the witnesses realize that God is at work in him and that this is a continuation of God's goodness revealed in the ministry of the prophets.

In today's reading from the epistle to the Galatians Paul is aware of the new life which comes through the Gospel. In his case, it involved not resuscitation from physical death, but the radical change in Paul's life from a persecutor of the church to preaching the death and resurrection of Jesus.

Christian people gather to celebrate the Eucharist in response to their own experience of new life through Christ. We are called together by the Holy Spirit as one people, reborn in baptism and given a new identity which transcends our differences. We rediscover in each gathering our new identity as the redeemed children of God.

The anniversary of : Kenneth and Jenny Jakse, ...

We pray for those serving in the Armed Forces...

Lt. Colonel Dan Knaup, Corporal Jason Thompson, Major David Marcinski, Sgt. Mark Ditchman, Pvt 2nd Class Kyle Lewis, Col. Howard Pearce, Quartermaster Mike Thoumire, Staff Sgt. Paul Workman, Seaman Kyle Knowlton, Senior Airman Rebecca Voigt, Pvt. Jack Rolf, Lance Corporal Anthony Worst.

We also bless thy holy Name for all thy servants departed this life in thy faith and fear, especially:

and those who have died this week in the service of their country.

Outreach – Giving Tree: For the month of June we will be collecting cleaning products, such as: laundry detergent, dish washer, bar soap, wipes, etc. Thanks so much for the outpouring of gifts to the Giving Tree.

The Shawl Ministry: Do you like to knit, crochet and pray? Please consider joining a group of women from St. Bart’s and other surrounding churches as we create prayer shawls. We meet here at St. Bart’s at 7:00 p.m. every 1st and 3rd Wednesday. As shawls are created, we share shawl stories and pray over each shawl. If you know of an individual, a group or an institution that may benefit from a shawl blessed with love and prayers, please let one of us know or pick one up in the library. Liz York: 440-946-3374

Strengthen the faithful, arouse the careless, and restore the penitent. Grant us all things necessary for our common life, and bring us all to be of one heart and mind within your holy Church; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

If there is an enclosure (envelope or separate sheet) in the announcement folder, and you do not plan to use it at this time, please leave it on the table in back, instead of the trash. We can save a lot of paper that way. Thanks!

Thursday: Psalm 70, 71; 74 Eccles. 11:1-8; Gal. 5:16-24; Matt. 16:13-20

How to use the Daily Office: For each day, the Psalms are split into AM (morning) and PM (evening) readings by the “&” You may read them this way or together at one time. Optional readings are in [brackets]. Below the Psalms you have an Old Testament, New Testament, and Gospel reading for each day. The entire Bible can be read in two years following this format from the Book of Common Prayer.
