THE EPIPHANY BANNER

The brilliant Star of Bethlehem guided the three Magi - Casper, Melchoir, and Balthazar - on their long journey by camel, bringing fine gifts to the new baby Jesus. Arriving 12 days after the birth of the infant King, the camels lead them home by a different road.

NOTE:

Concerning Fr. Steve's absence:

Many of us are not too familiar with the intricacies of Morning Prayer. Several of us laypersons have tried our best to make the Bulletins flow smoothly. If you notice errors. Please notify Francys or Kay. Thanks you for your patience!

Celebrant: The Rev. Rosalind C. Hughes

Eucharist Ministers: Linda Price (8:00); Richard Wise (10:30)

Lectors: Diane Bellas (8:00) Matt Matthews and Tom Robinson (10:30)

Ushers: Matt and West Matthews

Teller: Deb Marcinski

Organist: Aleksandr Leybkind

THE SECOND SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY:

14 January 2018

Welcome! Please enter the nave quietly and reverently as there may be people already in prayer and contemplation.

Thank you for worshiping with us today. Your presence is important to all of us. If you are just passing through, we wish you Godspeed on your travels and hope that you will join us whenever you return. If you live in this area and are new to this parish, we welcome you and invite you to make Saint Bartholomew your church home. If you are a long-time member who has been gone for a while, welcome home---we've missed you! And if you are a member of this parish who generally shows up every week, thank you for your commitment to our parish family---well done, good and faithful servant!

About Today's Lessons

On the Sundays after Epiphany, the scriptures explore some of the ways in which Jesus was shown to be God's Son. Today we focus on the beginning of his ministry when he called his disciples. In the passage before today's reading he called Andrew who went and brought his brother Peter. Today he calls Philip who brings Nathaniel.

The first reading is the account of the call of Samuel, the first great prophet of the Hebrew Scriptures after Moses. In the calls both of Nathaniel and of Samuel, the person called is not at first impressed by the call.

In the second reading, a problem of sexual misbehavior in the church of Corinth is dealt with by Paul's first reminding his readers that they are a newborn people by Baptism. How they use their lives, including their bodies, must be in the context of their having been washed, sanctified, and justified in Christ and the Holy Spirit.

As we gather in Eucharist, our new life in Christ is manifested in our response: "Speak, Lord, your servant hears," and in following him who calls us into lives of faith and ministry in his name.

How to use the Daily Office: For each day, the Psalms are split into M (morning) and PM (evening) readings by the "&" You may read them this way or together at one time. Optional readings are in [brackets]. Below the Psalms you have an Old Testament, New Testament, and Gospel reading for each day. The entire Bible can be read in two years following this format from the Book of Common Prayer.
